SFDR article 9

The fund has sustainable investment objectives aligned with SFDR article 9 criteria. These objectives are:

- make money work for environmental and social change
- contribute to the transition to an economy within planetary boundaries
- contribute to the transition to an economy where all humans can enjoy a prosperous life.

Triodos Global Equities Impact Fund aims to generate positive impact and competitive returns from a concentrated portfolio of equities issued by large-cap companies offering sustainable solutions.

The fund mainly invests in equities of companies in developed countries and whose products or services contribute to at least one of the following transitions: resource transition, energy transition, food transition, societal transition or wellbeing transition.

Highlights

- Triodos Global Equities Impact Fund generated a return (after costs) of -1.70%, while the benchmark yielded -2.66%.
- The tariffs announcement of President Trump at 'Liberation Day' triggered a global market sell-off. The tariffs are expected to have a significant impact on global trade and economic growth. Volatility surged and halfway through April, major indices were close to a bear market. Trump was forced to de-escalate the situation and announced 90 days pause for tariffs. This started a relief rally, and stocks recovered from the lows. The MSCI World Index (EUR) ended the month 4.1% lower.
- The fund could not escape the negative sentiment, although it outperformed the reference index. This was mainly the result of the somewhat more defensive characteristics of the portfolio and the underweight to the US. On the impact of (potential) tariffs, we got some first insights from companies during the reporting season. Some companies see impact and did lower their full year profit outlook. Others expect to mitigate the negative impact by raising prices or adjusting operational expenditures.

Principal Adverse Impact Indicators (PAIs)

GHG intensity of investee companies: The GHG intensity is a relative measure of greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions. It is the amount of GHG produced per unit of revenue generated by the company, measured in tonnes of CO<sub>2</sub> per EURm generated in revenue. The carbon intensity is then weighted using the portfolio weight to get a weighted average for the portfolio.

Non-recycled waste ratio: For each company the non-recycled waste ratio is the total amount in metric tons of non-recycled waste produced divided by the amount invested in EURm. This is expressed as a weighted average.

Excessive CEO pay ratio: This metric measures the ratio within investee companies of the annual total compensation for the highest compensated individual to the median annual total compensation for all employees.

Risk

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less. The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you. We have classified this product as 4 out of 7, which is a medium risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level. The product may be exposed to risks, such as concentration risk and currency risk. This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

When investing in the fund, please take into account all the characteristics and/or objectives of the promoted fund as described in its prospectus. Further, please take notice of the sustainability aspects of the fund as found here.
