Press Release

Jeroen van Herwaarden appointed as Fund Manager of Triodos Euro Bond Impact Fund

Zeist, The Netherlands, 29 May 2020 – Triodos Investment Management has appointed Jeroen van Herwaarden as Fund Manager of Triodos Euro Bond Impact Fund as per 1 June 2020. He will succeed William de Vries, who was appointed as Director Impact Equities & Bonds as per the end of January and continued to fulfil the role as Fund Manager of Triodos Euro Bond Impact Fund until a replacement was found.

Jeroen van Herwaarden currently works in the Impact Equities & Bonds team of Triodos Investment Management as a Portfolio Manager. In this role he is responsible for the fixed income impact investments in the discretionary portfolios of Triodos Bank Private Banking. He has a longstanding track record of over 20 years in the financial services industry. Before joining Triodos in 2015, Jeroen held several positions in fixed income investment research and investment advisory at ABN AMRO, Van Lanschot and MeesPierson.

Jeroen van Herwaarden on his appointment: “The investment decisions we make today, define the world we will live in tomorrow. As more and more investors become aware of this responsibility, impact investing continues to gain importance. Triodos Investment Management has the ambition to continue to play a key role in financing positive change. I am very excited to be able to contribute to the transition toward a more sustainable and inclusive society through our bond investments.”

Jeroen is a CFA Charterholder and registered with the Dutch Securities Institute.
