Press Release

Maurice Bölte appointed as Head of Marketing and Communications at Triodos Investment Management

Zeist, The Netherlands, 25 March 2020 – Triodos Investment Management, the globally active impact investor and full subsidiary of Triodos Bank, has appointed Maurice Bölte as Head of Marketing and Communications. In this role he will head a team of eight marketing and communications professionals.

Maurice Bölte has over 20 years of experience in leading marketing, communications and digital design teams in the banking industry. He worked in several positions for Rabobank Group over the last fifteen years, for example as Marketing Manager for Rabobank Private Banking and as Head of Communications for Rabobank Corporate Communications & Affairs. In his last position prior to joining Triodos Investment Management he worked as Strategy & Engagement Manager for Rabo Foundation.

“Throughout my career, especially in my last position at Rabo Foundation, I have always been greatly inspired by the necessity to transition toward a more sustainable society and the important role that impact investing plays in this transition. Triodos Investment Management is a frontrunner in impact investing and plays a catalysing role in the sustainable transition. I very much look forward to contribute to realising the ambition of Triodos Investment Management together with the marketing and communications team by further expanding visibility and brand awareness in the countries we are active in”, says Maurice Bölte on his appointment.

Maurice holds a MSc in Business Economics from Tilburg University.

About Triodos Investment Management
