Triodos Investment Management opens up its funds to Swedish retail investors via online fund platform Fondo

Driebergen, the Netherlands / Stockholm, Sweden, 27 March 2024 – Triodos Investment Management is broadening the availability of its investment funds on the Swedish market by opening up four of its Impact Equities and Bonds funds to Swedish retail investors via online fund platform Fondo. As of today, Triodos Pioneer Impact Fund (Z-cap), Triodos Future Generations Fund (Z-cap), Triodos Global Equities Impact Fund (Z-cap) and Triodos Euro Bond Impact Fund (Z-cap) can be bought through the Fondo platform, enabling Swedish retail investors to make their money work for positive environmental and social change.

Vuk Srdanovic, Investor Relations Manager Nordics at Triodos Investment Management: “I’m excited that our funds are now available on the Fondo platform as it opens up the world of impact investing to Swedish retail investors. They now have the opportunity to actively contribute to much needed transitions like the energy transition, the food transition or the resources transition through investments in the Triodos funds.”

Swedish fintech firm Fondo operates as an independent fund platform, providing Swedish retail investors access to a wide range of funds. As the distribution is entirely without commissions from fund managers, Fondo’s extensive selection of funds is offered at the lowest fees possible.

Olof Cristoferson, CEO at Fondo: “We are pleased to welcome Triodos Investment Management to our platform. With the addition of Triodos’ four funds, we enhance our selection of ‘dark green’ funds, which is in high demand in the Nordics”.

The Triodos Funds are available on Fondo through this link: <https://app.fondo.se/funds>.

About Triodos Investment Management
